

ROLE DESCRIPTION AND PERSON SPECIFICATION FOR CORPORATION MEMBERS

KEY ISSUES

- (i) Corporation members, other than the Principal, are appointed as non-representative members of the Corporation.
- (ii) Members will be asked to become a member of at least one of the Corporation committees.
- (iii) Members give of their time without payment;
- (iv) Members are regarded as ambassadors for the College and are expected to promote the work of the College. Equally, if members are made aware of any criticism of the College's activities they will be expected to bring the criticism to the attention of the Chair of the Corporation or the Principal and Chief Executive, who will investigate the matter.
- (v) The College is managed by the Principal and Chief Executive in accordance with the Instrument and Articles of Government. The Principal is accountable to the Corporation and any concerns which a member has about any aspect of the management of the College should be brought to the attention either of the Principal or the Chair of the Corporation.
- (vi) Members will have access to induction and training sessions to assist them in fulfilling their role.
- (vii) Members are expected to register all direct and indirect financial interests with the Clerk and to avoid any actions which would embarrass the College.
- (viii) Members are expected to act with total propriety in their dealings with the representation of the College.
- (ix) Members are expected to:
 - Be aware of the responsibilities of the Corporation and Principal as set out in Articles 3 and 4
 - Attend meetings on a regular basis - failure to attend regularly without leave or good cause can lead to loss of office
 - Study agenda papers and prepare for meetings appropriately
 - Contribute advice and views on issues brought to meetings on the basis of their specialist knowledge and experience
 - Support the College and its work by, for example, publicising the work of the College amongst other agencies and in other organisations of which they are a member, and attending College events.

SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS OF THE ROLE

Members are required to:

- Complete the Register of Interests and advise the Clerk to the Corporation of any new or amended interests as they occur
- Observe the Code of Conduct as from time to time amended
- Observe the terms of reference of the Corporation and any committees or working groups of which they are a member and comply with the Corporation's Terms of Reference and Standing Orders
- Ensure that they are eligible to be a member, in accordance with the Instrument of Government
- Ensure that their actions, personally and collectively, maintain high standards and that they act with integrity and behave ethically at all times, in accordance with the Seven Principles of Public Life
- Attend Corporation and committee meetings regularly and advise the Clerk promptly if there are reasons why they cannot attend.
- Participate in personal and group development and training to support their role as a Governor.

DUTIES

1. Play an active role in the future development and well-being of the College by contributing to:
